Dear Friends,

Thank you from all of us at the Oceanside Chamber of Commerce for attending our Annual Installation Cocktail Party. We are a group of over 100 members dedicated to supporting local businesses and service organizations in our area. Together in collaborating with service agencies and groups, we strive to keep Oceanside a vibrant and exciting place to live.

We welcome new members, whether you are a business owner or just an interested resident. I ask for all who want to be involved and get to know each other, to join the chamber, whether you are a seasoned business or new to the community.

I want to thank all of you for your support and especially want to thank the Board of Directors for all their efforts and countless volunteer hours in promoting our business community and strengthening community relationships.

Our Business of the Year is Guardian Bus Company Inc., a family-owned business operating school transportation services located in Oceanside, continues to prove their excellence in service by being a recipient of the Long Island Herald Family Business Award.

Our Citizen of the Year is Steven Klein, a life-long resident of Oceanside who joined the Oceanside Fire Department in 1965 becoming active in all aspects of the department, holding many offices ultimately serving as Department Chief in 1984. In April 2022, he received the National Volunteer Fire Council's Lifetime Achievement Award.

We look to grow the Chamber and have more business support from shopping locally. We welcome your ideas and participation in growing the Chamber as your voice in the community.

Citizen of the Year

Steven Klein

Steve Klein is a lifelong resident of Oceanside. He joined the Oceanside Fire Department and Oceanside Hose Company #1, in 1965 and quickly became active and served on many different company and Department committees. Steve rose through the ranks of Oceanside Hose Company #1 and served as the company captain in 1971. In 1991 Steve transferred his membership from Oceanside Hose Company #1 to Terrace Hose and Chemical Company # 3 and even as a former chief, Steve got very active in his new company and even served several years as a company trustee.

Steve was elected as Deputy Chief in 1981 and Chief of the Oceanside Fire Department in 1984. As Chief, Steve was responsible for overseeing the responses for two major incidents in our Department's history: the gasoline tanker fire on Long Beach Road in 1983; and the fire at the Long Island Lighting Company plant in 1984. Steve also was part of a reorganization of the Oceanside Fire Department Junior Fire Department (explain what this is?). Steve's love for the fire service did not stop with just Oceanside. He was chairman of the Second Battalion Fire District, which is made up of six (6) local Fire Departments. He has served on the Nassau County Fire Commission, and as Past President of the Fire Chief's Council of Nassau County and the Nassau County Firefighters Association. He currently sits as a director of the Southern New York Volunteer Firemen's Association.

Steve has also been very active with the Firefighter's Association of the State of New York (FASNY) since the 1960s. He served the Fire Prevention committee (now called Fire Prevention and Life Safety committee) and was a Trustee for the Firemen's Home, a skilled nursing facility dedicated to serving volunteer firefighters from 2002 through 2012.

Steve has served as a Director and Vice President of FASNY, and very recently became the first person from Oceanside to ever become President of FASNY. As President from 2018-2020, Steve focused tremendously on increasing training opportunities, passing presumptive cancer legislations, and dealing with the COVID pandemic.

In April 2022, Steve was honored with the National Volunteer Fire Council's Lifetime Achievement Award, a very proud moment in his volunteer fire fighting career.

Retired from delivering mail here in Oceanside for the US Postal Service, Steve raised his family in Oceanside and enjoys watching his grandchildren grow up here too.

Even after 58 years, Steve continues to serve the Oceanside Fire Department along with his son Kevin and his oldest Grandson Christopher. Steve has also had the extreme privilege of swearing in his son Kevin as Chief of the Oceanside Fire Department.

It is for his dedication to the volunteer fire service and the oceanside fire department that the Oceanside Chamber of Commerce has decided to honor him as the 2022 Citizen of the Year.

Business of the Year
Guardian Bus Co.
Michael Tornabe

Guardian Bus Company Inc. is a family owned and operated school transportation services business located in Oceanside, NY.

Guardian was founded by the Logan family in 2014 during the wake of the Atlantic Express/ Courtesy Bus bankruptcy. In a weeks' time between the bankruptcy and the recommencement of school, during the holiday break in December and January, Michael Tornabe was tasked with making sure there would be no bus service interruption for the students of the Oceanside and various other Long Island School Districts. He did just that and exceeded many expectations. Responsible for transporting 15,000 students, there was not one day of school missed because of Guardians relentless commitment to the communities they serve and every bus rolled that January under the name GUARDIAN.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, Guardian Bus educated school officials and parents alike on proper COVID-19 protocols and why it was important to continue to pay your school bus contractors while also being able to continue employment and health benefits for the school bus drivers during a global health pandemic. Notably, Guardian Bus Company participated in 2 NEWSDAY Live events as expert panelists tasked with teaching parents and school districts on proper reopening of schools protocols.

In the 2020 wake of the Baumann Bus Company bankruptcy, Guardian once again stepped in and was able to acquire the Baldwin, Freeport, Rockville Centre and Valley Stream school districts that were without a transportation provider and make sure that there was no lapse in transportation for any of the district's students.

Fast forward to 2022 and Guardian Bus Company has become a staple of the community and transportation powerhouse in Long Island. Showing unprecedented growth, Guardian starting with 250 employees in 2014, Guardian Bus now employs more than 600 employees. Remaining in Oceanside, Guardian has grown to 4 separate properties in the community, most notably a 40,000 square foot state of the art maintenance facility on Oceanside Road and a newly built 4 acre bus facility on Lawson Blvd. Guardian Bus believes in being a part of their communities. In our Oceanside community Guardian Bus Co. took part in the turkey drive with Oceanside School District. They also served food for thanksgiving at Oceanside Schools and was a active part in toys for tots. Along with being avid supporters and donators to Mount Sinai South Nassau Hospital.

Further proving their excellence in service and seen as a great company to work for, in 2020 Guardian Bus was the recipient of the Long Island Herald Family Business Award.

Oceanside is proud to have this growing business in our community. For their exemplary service to Oceanside ,one can see why the Oceanside Chamber of Commerce is happy to award Guardian Bus Co. Business Of the Year award.

CONGRATULATIONS TO

Citizen of the Year ~ Steven Klein

Steve Klein has made volunteer fire service a lifelong commitment. With leadership positions in Oceanside, throughout Nassau County, and as Oceanside's first president of the Firefighter's Association of New York, Steve has devoted himself to keeping our community safe and healthy.

Business of the Year – Guardian Bus Co., Michael Tornabe

A family-owned business, Guardian Bus is a staple of the community that has ensured every child has a ride to school when other services faltered. Guardian Bus supports community institutions and charity efforts and was named the 2020 Family Business by the Long Island Herald.
